IYA (UK) Affiliated Centres

The following information is taken from the IYA (UK) Standing Orders:

Private centres, institutes or organisations not wishing, or not meeting the criteria, to be Member Institutes, may subscribe to the Association as Affiliated Centres for an annual fee, if they fulfil the following criteria:

- a) the only yoga taught is Iyengar yoga
- b) the Centre does not allow classes where subjects which conflict with the principles of Iyengar Yoga are taught
- c) individual IYA (UK) Membership forms and other materials are made freely available to their members.

The annual fee will not entitle the members of Affiliated Centres to be members of the Association nor allow representation on the Executive Council.

The benefits include being able to:

- a) promote or advertise as an Affiliated IYA (UK) Centre
- b) receive copies of the Iyengar Yoga News
- b) be eligible to have listings and links on the IYA (UK) website

Re-application is required, at the time of renewal, if there is any change in the Centre's circumstances, activities or operation.

Send the following completed section to the IYA (UK) office. All teacher information will be checked against Iyengar yoga teacher lists and then the initial application will be submitted to the Ethics & Certification Committee for approval. You will be informed of the committee decision and invoiced for the annual fee of £100 plus payment for any additional magazines, once your application is approved. Routine renewal is on payment of an annual invoice.
